

The Rosary of the “Fiat VOLUNTAS TUA”

This Rosary was consecrated to Our Lady of the Rosary, Mother and Queen of the Divine Will on October 7, 2006. We pray it to obtain for the world the grace of the Kingdom of the Divine Will. This Rosary also has the blessing of the Church in 1996, given by its representative Monsignor Carmelo Cassati, Archbishop of Trani (Italy), President of the Tribunal for the Cause of Beatification of the Servant of God Luisa Piccarreta.

In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will proclaim Your praise.

Initial Prayer:

Oh, my good Jesus, we thank You because You call us to be united with You by means of prayer. We ask You to give us the grace of Your Spirit and may Our Blessed Mother Mary accompany us, so that we may pray properly. We want to be united with You, and in Your adorable Will, pray this rosary. Help us to meditate, retaining lovingly in our hearts the infinite treasure of Your Life, of all Your acts and the acts of our Celestial Mother while we accompany You in these Mysteries. We want to seal all Your acts with our little “I love You, I adore You, I bless You, I thank You,”... for me and for everyone, in a way that in all of them You will find our loving company, and, having done so, it is our intention to ask God our Father, together with You, with our Heavenly Mother, with all the Angels and Saints, and with all the Creation, that “Thy Kingdom come, and Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven”.

Act of Contrition

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be... Creed.

THE JOYFUL MYSTERIES FIRST MYSTERY

The Annunciation of the Angel to Mary

Jesus: “From the time I was conceived and in the first days of my Nativity, I was occupied with the Kingdom of my Divine Will and how to save It in the midst of creatures. Once this Kingdom was established in Me, I prepared the graces, the necessary things, the sorrows, and the satisfactions that were lacking to make It be known and to establish It in the midst of creatures. Therefore, if you want me to develop in you the Kingdom of the Eternal Fiat, let Me be free and never give life to your human will”.

SECOND MYSTERY

The Visitation

Mary: “The Motherly love that I had for all mankind and for you in particular, was so great that I felt the necessity to give my dear Jesus to everyone, in order that all might possess and love Him... I went to visit Elizabeth in Judea, not to make a simple visit, but because I burned with the desire of bringing Jesus to her... John then exulted so strongly with love and joy that Elizabeth, shaken, and full of gratitude exclaimed: “Who am I to be so honoured, that the Mother of my Lord comes to visit me?”

THIRD MYSTERY

The Birth of Jesus in Bethlehem

Jesus: “My daughter, today is the day of my Birth and I have come to make you happy with My presence... and embracing you closely to my little heart, make you feel my heartbeat which gives out fire that wants to burn everything that does not belong to my Will; and your heartbeat making its echo in mine, repeats to Me your pleasant refrain “Your Will reign on earth as it is in Heaven.” Repeat this always if you want to make Me happy and console My infant cry.”

The Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple

Mary: “My dear daughter, do not separate from my side, follow me everywhere. It is almost forty days from the Nativity of the little King, Jesus, and the Divine FIAT is calling Us to the Temple to fulfil the Law of the Presentation of my Son. It was the first time that I went out together with my sweet Child. One vein of sorrow was opened in my Heart: I was going to offer Him as a Victim for the salvation of all!”

FIFTH MYSTERY

Loss of Jesus at the Temple. Joys and Sorrows

Mary: “In this mystery my Son wanted to give you and Me a sublime teaching. Could you suppose that He might have ignored what I was suffering? Not at all, because my tears, my search, my cruel and intense sorrow, resounded in His Heart. However during these sorrowful hours, He sacrificed to the Divine Will His own Mother, the One He loves so much; to show me how one day I must sacrifice His own life to the Supreme Will... In the same way, you should sacrifice all to the Divine Will.”

THE MYSTERIES OF LIGHT FIRST MYSTERY

The Baptism in the Jordan

My Love, in this solemn act of Your Baptism, I ask You for a grace that You certainly will not deny to me: I pray You to baptize my little soul with Your holy hands, with the vivifying and creative water of Your Divine Will, that I may hear, see or know nothing but the Life of Your Fiat.

The Self-Manifestation at the Wedding of Cana

Mary: At the height of the lunch, wine lacked... And knowing that Jesus certainly would not deny anything to Me, I said to those who were serving the table: “Do what my Son tells you”. My child, in these few words I gave a lesson, the most useful, necessary and sublime for the creature... Do the Will of my Son. Do not move from what He tells you, and you will have His likeness, His sanctity in your power... That day Jesus said to everybody with facts, not with words: “If you want graces and miracles, come to my Mother; I will never deny anything She wants.

The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, with the call to conversion.

Jesus: “...You must know that, in coming upon earth, I came to manifest my Celestial doctrine, to make known my Humanity, my Fatherland, and the order which the creature had to maintain in order to reach Heaven – in a word, the Gospel. But I said almost nothing or very little about my Will. I almost passed over It, only making them understand that the thing which I cared the most about was the Will of my Father. I just taught her to pray: ‘Fiat Voluntas Tua, sicut in Coelo et in terra’, so that she might dispose herself to know this Will of Mine in order to love It, to do It, and therefore receive the gifts It contains.

FOURTH MYSTERY

The Transfiguration

Jesus: “... It is my usual way to do minor things first, as preparation for greater ones – these, being the crowning of the minor things... I maintained this order also in Redemption. My birth was without glamour, rather, it was neglected; my childhood was without splendour; my life in Nazareth was so hidden that I lived as if ignored by all; I adapted Myself to do the smallest and most common things of human life. During my public life there were a few great things, but still – who knew my Divinity? Nobody, not even all of the Apostles! I passed through the crowds like any other man, so much so, that anyone could approach Me, talk to Me, and if needed, even despise Me.”

The Institution of the Eucharist

Jesus: “Beloved daughter, I want to make known to you the reason for which I wanted to receive Myself when I instituted the Most Holy Sacrament. The prodigy was great: I, who instituted it, was to take care of everything, since, when the soul would receive Me, the Divinity was not to lack honours, divine decorum and a dwelling worthy of God. Therefore, my Humanity took on the commitment for all, and provided a dwelling within Itself to each host; and my Divinity, which was inseparable from Me, surrounded each sacramental host with divine honours, praises and blessings, to give worthy decorum to my Majesty. So, each sacramental host was deposited in Me, and contains the dwelling of my Humanity and the cortege of the honours of my Divinity; otherwise, how could I descend into the creature?”

SORROWFUL MYSTERIES

FIRST MYSTERY

The Agony of Jesus in the Garden

Jesus: “Father, if it is possible, let this Chalice pass from me; but not my will, but Yours be done”. But, do You know why I added three times, “but not my will but Yours be done?” I felt in Me the wills of all the creatures united together, all their evils, and on behalf of all, I shouted to the Father: “No more the human will be done on earth, but the Divine Will; the human will shall be banished and Your Will shall reign”.

The Scourging

Jesus: “My daughter, do You wish to know why they stripped me naked to be scourged?... To suffer and make reparation for the nakedness of man when he stripped off the royal garment of My Will. I felt such confusion and shame that I cried for the nakedness of man and I offered to my Celestial father My own nakedness so that man is again vested with the royal garment of My Will; and as payment so that this would not be denied me, I offered my Blood, my Flesh torn in pieces, and allowed my nakedness, not only of clothes but also of my own flesh, to pay the price and satisfy for the crime of nakedness of man.

The Crowning of Thorns

Jesus: “Courage, my daughter, do not lose anything of what I suffer. I must completely remake man... Sin has taken away His crown and has crowned Him with such disgrace and confusion, that he cannot appear before My Majesty. Sin has dishonoured man, causing Him to lose all rights to honour and glory. Therefore, I want to be crowned with thorns, in order to place the crown on the forehead of man and to give Him all rights to honour and glory.

FOURTH MYSTERY

Jesus condemned to die carries the Cross to Calvary

My Jesus, of insatiable Love, I see that You seek no rest, I hear Your longings of Love and Your pains... And You exclaim: “Oh beloved and sighed for Cross, You alone will save my children, and in You I concentrate all of my Love!”... You will be their life and their light, their defence, their guard and their strength... You will support them in everything and will conduct them gloriously to Me in Heaven. I give to You as dowry all souls. Keep them for Me. Save them for Me... I entrust them to You!”

FIFTH MYSTERY

Crucifixion and Death of our Lord

My good Jesus, I see You suspended between Heaven and earth. In this solemn moment You turn to the Father, and with weak and feeble voice You say to Him: “Holy Father, here I am burdened with all the sins of the world. By this Cross and in virtue of these pains, grant to everyone pardon, true conversion, peace and sanctity.

THE GLORIOUS MYSTERIES

FIRST MYSTERY

The Resurrection of Our Lord

Mary: “My daughter, my Son, making use of His power, ordered His deceased Humanity to receive anew His Soul and resurrect triumphantly and gloriously to Immortal Life. With this triumphant act, He put the seal that He IS man and God, and with His Resurrection confirmed His doctrine, miracles, the Life of the Sacraments, and all the Life of the Church. He also triumphed over the human wills and at the same time, He put in the bodies, in virtue of the Resurrection, the seed of the future immortality and of the perpetual glory.

The Ascension of Our Lord to Heaven

Jesus: “My daughter, I wanted to go up to Heaven with My beautiful Humanity, dressed in light, as it came from Our Creative Hands, to say to the Heavenly Father: My Father, look at Me, look how my Humanity is redone, how the Kingdom of Our Will is safe in It. It is I, the Head of all, and whoever prays to You, has every right to ask, and to give that which I possess.

THIRD MYSTERY

The Coming of the Holy Spirit over the Apostles

Mary: “You must know that although my Son had departed for Heaven, I continued to be together with the Apostles in the Cenacle awaiting the coming of the Holy Spirit. All clustered around Me, we prayed together, and they didn’t do anything without my counsel. That is why I can say that I gave birth to the new-born Church, over my maternal knees, and my arms were the Boat in which I guided it to a safe port and I guide it even today.

FOURTH MYSTERY

The Assumption of Most Holy Mary in body and soul into Heaven

Jesus: “My daughter, the name of this feast should be: ‘Feast of the Divine Will operating in the Creature.’ The Eternal Will worked such prodigies in my Celestial Mother, that It left Heaven and earth astonished, the angels were amazed and repeated among themselves: ‘Whence come so much glory, so much honour, such grandeur, and so many prodigies never seen before, in this sublime Soul? Yet it is from the exile that She comes!’ Amazed, they recognized the Will of their Creator as the Life operating in Her and, trembling, they said: ‘Holy, Holy, Holy, honour and glory to the Will of Our Sovereign Lord! And glory to Mary; and three times Holy She Who has made this Supreme Will operate!’”

Mary is Crowned Queen and Lady of Everything Created

Jesus: “She is the Queen of my Church; she helps it, protects it and defends it. She will sit in the midst of the sons of My Will, and will be always the moving force, the life, the guide, and the perfect model, the Teacher of the Kingdom of the Divine Fiat which interests Her so much. That is why this grand Lady is all eyes to see, all heart to love, and to help anyone She sees who in any way is disposed and wants to live of the Divine Will.
