LUISA'S SPECIAL MISSION

As we celebrate on March 4 the 79th anniversary of Jesus taking Luisa to Heaven, let us look at her unique mission, for which God chose her, and to which she responded faithfully:

"The first Fiat was spoken in Creation without the intervention of any creature.

The second Fiat was spoken in Redemption, and I desired the intervention of a creature and chose my Mama for the fulfillment of the second Fiat.

Now, for its fulfillment, I want to speak the third Fiat, and I want to speak it through you; I have chosen you for the fulfillment of the third *Fiat. This Fiat will complete the glory and honor of the Fiat of Creation and will be the confirmation and development of all the fruits of the Fiat of Redemption.

These three *Fiat*s will reflect the Most Holy Trinity on earth, and I will have the Fiat Voluntas Tua on earth as it is in Heaven. These three *Fiat*s will be inseparable: one will be the life of the other; they will be One and Triune, yet distinct from one another. My love wills it, my glory demands it, for having brought forth from the bosom of My Creative Power the first two *Fiat*s, My love now wants to bring forth the third Fiat, no longer able to contain it, and this in order to complete the work that came forth from Me; otherwise, the works of Creation and Redemption would remain incomplete."

Upon hearing this, I was not only confused but stunned, and I said to myself:

"Is all this possible? There are so many others, and if it is true that He has chosen me, it seems to me to be one of Jesus' usual follies! Besides, what could I possibly do or say, nailed to a bed and as incapable as I am? Could I confront the multiplicity and infinity of the Fiat of Creation and of Redemption? If my Fiat is similar to the other two *Fiat*s, I must run alongside them, multiply with them, do the good that they do, intertwine myself with them... Ah, Jesus, think carefully about what You are doing; I am not fit for so much!"

Then Jesus returned and said to me:

"My daughter, be calm; I choose whom I please. You must know that I begin all My works between Myself and ONE single creature; then they are spread. In fact, who was the first spectator of the Fiat of Creation? Adam, and then Eve; certainly not multitudes of people. Yet after many, many years, crowds and multitudes of peoples became spectators.

Luisa's Special Mission

In the second Fiat, only my Mama was the spectator; not even Saint Joseph knew anything. My Mama was in conditions even more difficult than yours; so great was the grandeur of the creative power of My work that she felt within herself such awe that, overwhelmed, she did not feel the strength to say even a single word to anyone. And if Saint Joseph later came to know of it, it was I who revealed it to him. And so, in her virginal womb, like a seed, this Fiat germinated and the ear of wheat was formed to multiply it, and then it came out into the light of day. But who were the spectators? Very few. In the house of Nazareth there were only my dear Mama and Saint Joseph; then, when My Humanity grew, I went out and made Myself known, but not to all; later it spread more and will spread still further.

So it will be with the third Fiat: it will germinate in you, the ear of wheat will be formed; only the priest will have knowledge of it, then a few souls, and afterward it will spread, it will spread and follow the same path as Creation and Redemption."

BENEFITS OF MEDITATING ON THE PASSION OF OUR LORD

Our beloved Jesus loved us so much that through His painful Passion He not only redeemed us, but within it enclosed unimaginable spiritual treasures, remedies for all our spiritual ills, and special graces that we so greatly need in our daily lives. In fact, in the past we have deprived ourselves of those countless graces, light, virtues, and gifts by not thinking about, meditating on, and praying with the Passion of Our Lord:

"The world has become unbalanced because it has lost the thought of My Passion.

– In darkness it has not found the light of My Passion to illumine it and, by making it know My love and how much souls cost Me, help it to respond and love the One who truly loves it; and the light of My Passion, guiding it, would put it on guard against all dangers.

– In weakness it has not found the strength of My Passion to sustain it.

– In impatience it has not found the mirror of My patience to instill calm and resignation; and before My patience, being ashamed, it would feel it a duty to master itself.

– In sorrows it has not found the comfort of the sorrows of a God who, by sustaining its own, instills love for suffering.

– In sin it has not found My holiness which, standing before it, would instill hatred for guilt.

Ah! In everything man has gone astray because he has separated himself in everything from the One who can help him. Therefore the world has lost its balance."

(Vol. 11; Feb. 2, 1917).

This is the sad situation of the world in general and of countless souls in particular, of our past personal and family life... And the remedy for all these evils is precisely to think about, meditate on, and pray with the Passion of Jesus Christ:

“Each time the soul thinks of My Passion, remembers what I suffered, or has compassion on Me, the application of My pains is renewed within it; My Blood rises to flood it; My wounds set out to heal it if it is wounded, or to adorn it if it is healthy; and all My merits enrich it. The gain it makes is astonishing—it is as if it placed in a bank all that I did and suffered and earned double.

All that I did and suffered remains in continuous act of giving itself to man, just as the sun remains in continuous act of giving its light and heat to the earth. My works are not subject to exhaustion; it is enough that the soul desire it, and as many times as it desires, it will receive the fruit of My Life. Thus, if it remembers My Passion twenty times, or one hundred, or one thousand times, that many times will it enjoy its effects. But... how few make treasure of it! With all the good of My Passion... and yet souls are seen weak, blind, deaf, mute, lame—living corpses that are repulsive! And why? Because My Passion is forgotten.

My pains, My wounds, My Blood:

- are strength that removes weakness,
- are light that gives sight to the blind,
- are a tongue that loosens tongues and opens ears,
- are a path that straightens the lame,
- are life that raises the dead.

All the remedies necessary for humanity (in general and for each soul in particular) are in My Life and in My Passion; but creatures despise the medicine and do not concern themselves with the remedies. Therefore it is seen that, with all My Redemption... man perishes in his state as if affected by an incurable disease.

And what pains Me most is to see religious persons who toil to acquire doctrines, speculations, and histories— but of My Passion... nothing! So much so that My Passion is often far from the churches, far from the lips of priests; their speech is without light, and thus people remain more fasting than before.”

(Vol. 13; Oct. 21, 1921)

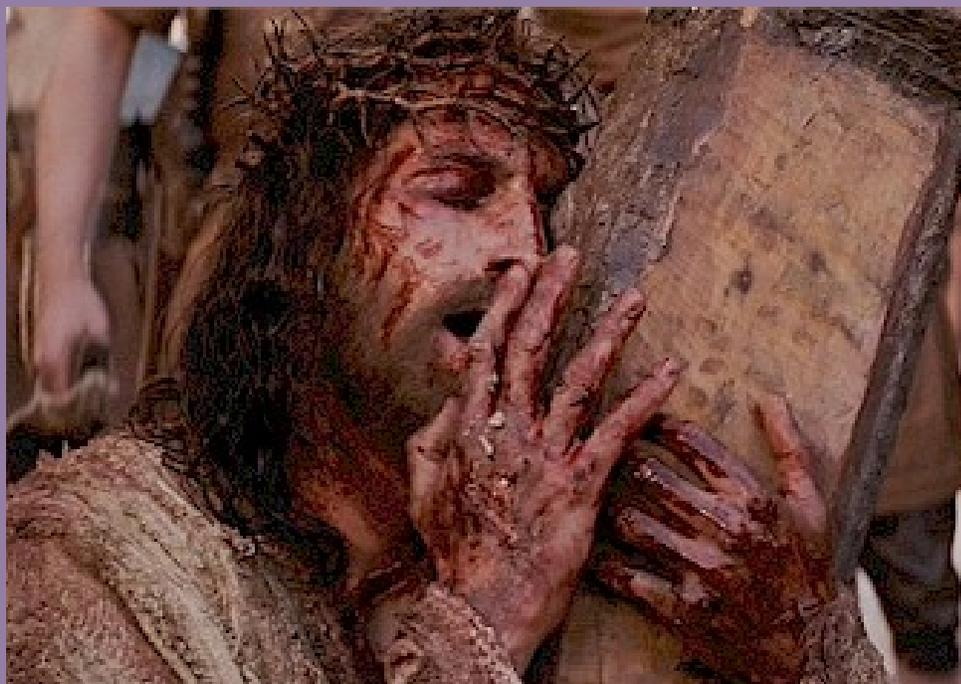

As a special and most efficacious means of coming to know His Passion and uniting ourselves to it, Jesus gave us the immense gift of the book The Hours of the Passion by Luisa Piccarreta—a gift we also owe to the Church, since Saint Annibale was the one who ordered her to write it, reviewed it, sought ecclesiastical approval, and took care of publishing, reprinting, and distributing it.

Luisa herself wrote to Saint Annibale about other beneficial effects of praying and meditating on the Passion of Jesus in the way Jesus taught her:

"If the one who meditates on them

- ·is a sinner, he will be converted;
- ·if he is imperfect, he will become perfect;
- ·if he is holy, he will become more holy;
- ·if he is tempted, he will find victory;
- ·if he is suffering, he will find in these Hours strength, medicine, and consolation;
- ·if his soul is weak and poor, he will find spiritual nourishment and a mirror in which to look at himself continually in order to become more beautiful and more like Jesus, our model."

So great is the delight that blessed Jesus receives from the practice of these Hours that He would desire that there be at least one copy in every city and town and that they be practiced. For then it would happen as if, in those acts of reparation, Jesus were to feel His own voice and His own prayers reproduced—just as He Himself raised them to the Father during the 24 hours of His sorrowful Passion. And if they were practiced by souls in every city and even in the smallest towns, Jesus makes me understand that Divine Justice would be greatly appeased, and many chastisements in these sad times of suffering and bloodshed would be largely avoided or lessened."

Moreover, it is nourishment for growth in the life of the Divine Will; it is to “make one’s rounds” in the Passion of Jesus.

And regarding your loved ones—do you not know what to do to help in their conversion? With these Hours, the soul unites itself to Jesus Himself in His Passion and, with His own prayers, reparations, and offering, makes reparation for all, implores for all, and obtains graces for all.

These are only some of the benefits; many more are produced—toward Jesus, within one’s own soul, toward all our neighbor, including the souls in purgatory, and even for eternity. Let us take advantage of this grace, especially during this Lenten season!

REFLECTION ON THE ANNUNCIATION

“At such a great announcement, so much desired by Me – although I had never thought I would be the chosen one – I was stupefied and hesitated one instant. But the Angel of the Lord told Me: “Do not fear, our Queen, for You have found grace before God. You have conquered your Creator; therefore, to complete the victory – pronounce your Fiat.”

I pronounced my Fiat, and – oh! marvel - the two Fiat fused together and the Divine Word descended into Me..” (Day 19)

Powerful Queen, pronounce your Fiat and create in me the Will of God.

REFLECTIONS ON SAINT JOSEPH

“Saint Joseph was to be the cooperator, the tutor, who was to take care of that bit of the human which We needed; as well as the shadow of the Celestial Paternity, in which our little Celestial Family on earth was to be formed”. (Day 17)

“I went accompanied only by Saint Joseph, and in him I saw my good angel whom God had given Me for my custody... I was most attentive in serving him; we looked at each other with veneration, and the dawn of peace reigned in our midst. Oh! if all would reflect themselves in Me by imitating Me...!” (Day 18)
