

LITTLE CHILDREN OF THE DIVINE FIAT

But do you know what was the first act that this noble Queen did when, coming out of the maternal womb, She opened Her eyes to the light of this low world?

As She was born, the Angels sang lullabies to the Celestial Baby, and She remained enraptured; Her beautiful soul went out of Her little body, accompanied by angelic cohorts, and went around Heaven and earth, gathering all the love that God had spread throughout the whole Creation; and penetrating into the Empyreum, She came to the foot of Our throne, offered Us the requital of the love of all Creation, and pronounced Her first 'thank You' in the name of all.

Oh! how happy We felt in hearing the 'thank You' of this Little Baby Queen. And We confirmed in Her all the graces, all the gifts, such as to make Her surpass all other creatures together."

"Then, throwing Herself into Our arms, She delighted with Us, swimming in the sea of all contentments, remaining embellished with new beauty, with new light and with new love. She pleaded once again for mankind, praying Us, with tears, to let the Eternal Word descend in order to save Her brothers.

But as She was doing this, Our Will let Her know that She should descend to the earth, and immediately She left Our contentment's and joys, and departed, in order to do... what? Our Will! What powerful magnet Our Will was, dwelling on earth in this newborn Queen! No longer did the earth appear alien to Us; We no longer felt like striking it, making use of Our justice. We had the power of Our Will which, in this innocent child, restrained Our arms, smiled at Us from the earth, and turned justice into graces and sweet smile; so much so, that unable to resist this sweet enchantment, the Eternal Word hastened His course.

Oh! prodigy of my Divine Will - to You everything is due, through You everything is accomplished, and there is no greater prodigy than my Will dwelling in the creature. (Vol. 15, December 8, 1922)

Most Holy Virgin Mary

The Sorrows of the Most Holy Virgin Mary in the Divine Will

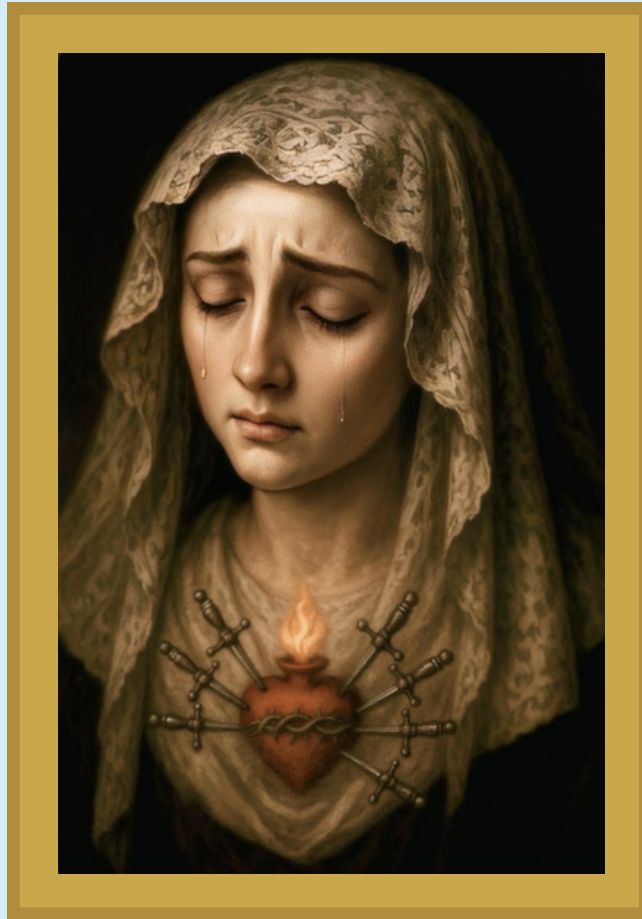

The sorrows of the Divine Mother were not only seven, nor were there only seven swords that pierced Her Heart. Rather, Her sorrows were innumerable, and innumerable were the swords that pierced Her; and She suffered them all perfectly in the Divine Will, thereby acquiring innumerable riches and immense glory. For this reason, She is called the “Queen of Sorrows,” and these sorrows contributed to making Her the “Queen of Heaven and earth,” as Our Lord explains:

The Sorrows of the Celestial Mama and How the Divine Fiat Operated in Them.

“My daughter, I was the first King of Sorrows. Being both Man and God, I had to encompass everything within Myself in order to hold the primacy over all things, and therefore also over sorrows themselves. The sorrows of My Mama were nothing other than the reverberations of My own. As My sorrows were reflected in Her, they communicated to Her all My sorrows; and, piercing Her through, they filled Her with such bitterness and pain that She felt as though She were dying at every reflection of My sorrows.”

The Sorrows of the Most Holy Virgin Mary in the Divine Will-2

And while He was saying this, I seemed to see my Mama before Jesus, and everything that Jesus contained—the sorrows and the piercings of His Most Holy Heart—was reflected in the Heart of the Sorrowful Queen. These reflections formed innumerable swords in the Heart of the pierced Mama, and they were sealed by a Fiat of Light, in which She remained surrounded and fused. She stood in the midst of so many Fiats of most refulgent Light, which gave Her such glory that words fail to describe it. Then Jesus continued, saying to me:

“But it was not the sorrows alone that constituted My Mama Queen and made Her shine with such great glory; rather, it was My Omnipotent Fiat, which intertwined Itself with each of Her acts and sorrows and constituted Itself the life of each of Her sorrows. My Fiat was the first act that formed the sword, giving it the intensity of pain that It desired. My Fiat could place within that pierced Heart as many sorrows as It desired, adding wounds upon wounds, pains upon pains, without the shadow of the slightest resistance. Even more, She felt honored that My Fiat would constitute Itself the life even of each one of Her heartbeats. And My Fiat gave Her complete glory and constituted Her the true and legitimate Queen.”

The Sorrows of the Most Holy Virgin Mary in the Divine Will-3

Thus conclude the teachings concerning the sorrows of the Mama of Heaven and the way She lived them: without opposing any of them, without even desiring that they be taken away or diminished. In each one, She gave Her complete Fiat and became one with the Divine Fiat. Her attention was fixed on allowing the Divine Fiat to be the life of every sorrow. In this way, She acquired immense goods, riches, joys, and glory in each one of them, for all eternity. What follows is the teaching for us, so that we may learn to suffer as She did, in the Divine Fiat:

“Now, what souls will be those in whom I can make the reflections of My sorrows and My very life shine? Those who will have My Fiat as their life. This Fiat will absorb My reflections in them, and I will be magnanimous in sharing with them what My Will operates in Me.

Therefore, in My Will I await souls in order to give them the true dominion and the complete glory of every act and every pain they may suffer.

Outside of My Will, I do not recognize either their acting or their suffering. I could say: ‘I have nothing to give you. What was the will that animated you in doing and suffering those things? Let it reward you.’ Many times, doing good and suffering without My Will entering into it can be miserable forms of slavery that degenerate into passions.

Only My Will gives true dominion, true virtues, and the true glory of transforming what is human into what is Divine.” (Volume 15, March 23, 1923)

As a fruit of these teachings, let us meditate upon them and make our interior act of desiring to put them into practice from this moment forward, following the example of Jesus and our Mama, and together with Them.

The Divine Will in the Soul Who Receives It

We have been seeing how Our Lord, through the writings of Luisa, makes known to us how the Divine Will operated together with His human will in Him, and how all of this divine operating has remained preserved and safeguarded within His Divine Will, awaiting our entrance into living in It. And as we enter, we find all of His Acts, His entire Life, so that His Life may become the life of each one of our acts.

“Listen, O My daughter, regenerated in My Supreme Will, to what I want to do with you and in you: I want to repeat what My Humanity did in the Divine Will, but I want your will united with Mine, so that together with Me you may repeat what I did and what I continue to do.

In My Will are all the Acts that My Humanity performed, both interior and exterior.

As for the exterior acts, more or less it is known what I did; and if the creature desires, she can unite herself with Me and take part in that good which I did. And I feel the contentment of seeing My good multiplied in the midst of creatures by virtue of the union they have with Me.

Therefore, My Acts are as though deposited in a bank, and I receive the interest.”

The Divine Will in the Soul Who Receives It-2

But as for the interior acts that My Humanity performed in the Divine Will for love of all, little or nothing is known. And if the creature does not know the Power of this Will, nor how My Soul operated in It, nor what I did, how can she unite herself with Me in order to take part in this good? Knowledge carries within itself the value, the effects, and the life of that good.

An object produces as much benefit as it is known. It often happens that, of two objects having the same value, the one whose value is known is sold for more and brings greater profit; while the other, because it is not known, is sold for less and produces less. How many things knowledge accomplishes! Many become rich because they dedicate themselves to acquiring knowledge of things; while others, finding themselves in the very same circumstances, remain poor because they do not know things well.

Now, since I want you together with Me also in the interior Acts that My Humanity performed in this Supreme Will, it is right that I make known to you the value, the effects, the Power, and the way in which this Will of Mine operates. And as I manifest these things to you, I open between you and Me the participation in that which I make known to you. If it were not so, then why would I tell you? Perhaps merely to give you some information? No, no! When I make something known, it is because I want to give. Therefore, the more values and effects you come to know, the more I will have given you.

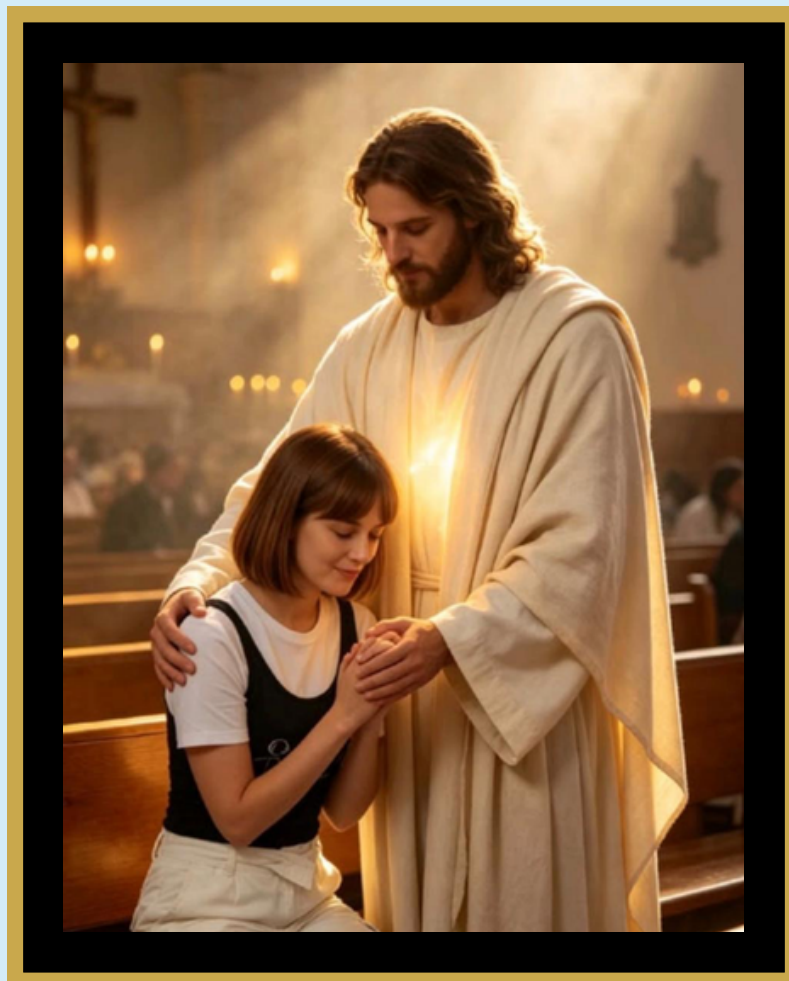

The Divine Will in the Soul Who Receives It-3

Therefore, consider the great good I desire to accomplish, not only in you, but also in others... (Vol. 14, October 19, 1922)

This is God's plan: "For those whom God foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the Firstborn among many brothers." (Rom 8:29) In everything, both exteriorly and interiorly.

"Until now, I have made known what My Humanity did—Its virtues and Its sufferings—in order to establish the human family as heirs to the goods of My Humanity. But now I want to go further, and I want to make known what My Will did within My Humanity, in order to establish the new generations as heirs to My Will, to Its effects, and to the value It contains. Therefore, be attentive in listening to Me, and let nothing escape you concerning the effects and the value of this Will of Mine, so that you may be the faithful bearer of these goods, the first link of union with My Will, and the means of communication of these goods to the other creatures."
(Vol. 13, September 6, 1921)

The Divine Will in the Soul Who Receives It-4

And Luisa, in addition to faithfully transmitting to us the knowledges of this Divine inheritance, teaches us the acts by which we can gradually take possession of these goods and enjoy their fruits:

I was fusing myself completely in the Holy Will of my sweet Jesus, and I said to Him:

“My Love, I enter into Your Will, and here I find all the thoughts of Your mind, as well as all the thoughts of creatures. With my thoughts and those of all my brothers and sisters, I form a crown around Your thoughts; then I unite them all together and make them one, in order to give You the homage, the adoration, the glory, the love, and the reparation of Your own Intelligence.”

And while I was saying this, my Jesus moved within my interior, and rising to His feet, He said to me:

“Inseparable daughter of My Will, how happy I am to hear you repeat what My Humanity did in My Will! And I kiss your thoughts in Mine, your words in My words, your heartbeat in My heartbeat!”

May we too desire to know ever more deeply how Jesus operated in His Divine Will and to repeat His acts, for the greater glory of God, the greater good of all creatures, and our greater eternal glory.
